 - ✓ B&CE Accident Cover
An equivalent scheme would provide payments for injuries at a comparable level to current B&CE rates in the event of an accident either at work, or whilst travelling to or from work.
14. CITB levy registration, if in scope.
15. Membership of the Steeplejack and Lightning Protection Training Group (if based in the UK).

16. Registration with CSCS, a CSCS affiliated scheme (including FÀS), or equivalent European scheme for at least 75% of operational staff engaged in lightning protection and steeplejack work with trade specific qualifications.
17. Compliance with the National Joint Council Working Rule Agreement, or equivalent, as a minimum.
18. Completion of a satisfactory office and site visit.

ATLAS charges an application fee of £400+VAT for Contractor Members and Associate Members, and £50+VAT for Professional Advisors, which is payable upon submission of the application. In the event that membership is rejected, 50% of the application fee will be refunded if the rejection is confirmed prior to the site visit. The application fee is non-refundable if the site visit has taken place.

*Any Contractor Member applicant that satisfies all the criteria, other than the three-year minimum trading period, in lightning protection or steeplejack work, will qualify for Affiliate Membership. The ATLAS Constitution details the differences between Contractor Member and Affiliate Membership.

On acceptance into membership, companies are also required to:

- Comply with the ATLAS Constitution, the ATLAS Code of Conduct and the ATLAS Complaints Procedure
- Notify ATLAS of any changes in company registration within 14 days of occurrence:
 - Company registration number or trading title
 - Directors
 - VAT registration number
- Submit on an annual basis the following information to ATLAS:
 - Insurance details
 - Accident figures
 - Training records
- Attend at least one Members' or Committee Meeting, per membership year.

ATLAS Subscriptions Policy

Companies are required to pay an annual membership subscription to ATLAS.

The ATLAS membership year runs from 1 January to 31 December and all ATLAS members are invoiced for their standard membership subscription on 1 January.

The following rates of standard membership subscription have been agreed by ATLAS Council for the current membership year (2021):
